Fall Back! Return to Standard Time Sunday, November 2!

Defensive Driving Class for St. James SENIORS

St. James SENIORS will sponsor an AARP Defensive Driver's Class on Monday, November 3 from 9-11 in the Youth Suite of the Ministries Center. Class size is limited to 20 participants. The cost of this session is $20 per person which includes instruction, books and course materials, and a box lunch. This is a one-day class.

Many insurance companies offer discounts up to three years for those completing the course. Your reservation is your check for $20 made out to St. James Church and mailed to Helen Campbell, St. James Church, P.O. Box 126, Baton Rouge, LA 70821.

Two more Sundays of photo sessions are being offered as we strive for full participation in the upcoming St. James Directory. The sessions will be on Sundays, November 2 and 9. If you haven't already, please have your photo made between 10:00 and 10:50 a.m., or noon and 1:00 p.m. on either of those Sundays. If you attend the 5:00 service, there will be a photographer available both before and after the service this Sunday and next!

As you plan your morning, please remember the farewell reception for Fr. Blount Grant on Sunday, November 2 at 10:00 a.m., and the dedication of the St. James Columbarium at noon on Sunday, November 9. These will absolutely be the last opportunities for photos because we need to get this directory printed!

As always, if you need to make changes in your directory entry, please contact Jane Christensen (275-9516 or TQMSystems@aol.com).

Time Needed to Consider Anglican Covenant

[Episcopal News Service, Helena, Montana]

If a proposed Anglican covenant is released in mid-May for adoption by the Anglican Communion's provinces, Presiding Bishop Katharine Jefferts Schori will "strongly discourage" any effort to bring that request to the 76th General Convention in July.

Jefferts Schori briefly discussed the covenant process during her remarks to the opening plenary session October 21 on the second of the Executive Council's four-day meeting in Helena, the seat of the Diocese of Montana.

Anglican Communion provinces have until the end of March 2009 to respond to the current version of the proposed covenant, known as the St. Andrew's Draft. The Covenant Design Group meets in London in April 2009 and may issue another draft of a covenant. That draft is expected to be reviewed by the Anglican Consultative Council (ACC) during its May 1-12, 2009 meeting. The ACC could decide to release that version to the provinces for their adoption.

If the ACC decides to do that, "my sense is that the time is far too short before our General Convention for us to have a thorough discussion of it as a church and I'm therefore going to strongly discourage any move to bring it to General Convention," Jefferts Schori told the Executive Council. "I just think it's inappropriate to make a decision that weighty" that quickly, she added.

The 76th General Convention meets July 8-17 in Anaheim, California.

Council also heard October 21 that it will be asked during its January 30-February 2, 2009, meeting in Stockton, California, to officially respond to the St. Andrew's Draft. The covenant drafters have asked provinces to say if they believe in principle that they can commit to the covenant, what provincial process is required for that commitment and what changes to the St. Andrew's Draft would give them the greatest chance of being able to make the commitment.

Council's Covenant Response Group is reviewing comments from diocesan General Convention deputations as it considers a proposed response, Council member and response group member the Rev. Ian Douglas told the council. Deputations have been asked to send their comments to the General Convention office by the end of October. Thirty responses have been received so far, Douglas said. The group earlier drafted the Council's October 2007 response to the first covenant draft, which is available here.

Diocesan Mother/Daughter Retreat
November 7-9, 2008

Our theme this year will be "Saints from Ages Past and Among Us Now." Together we will experience Godly Play, yoga, music, the building of a castle, a Eucharist, a bonfire, and much more. Individually we will have time for meditation and reflection, facilitated by the labyrinth and a separate session for mothers only and daughters only, as well as plenty of time for mothers and daughters to play together.

ministration & Finance (A&F), Congregations in Ministry (CIM), National Concerns (NAC) and International Concerns (INC). The committees met for a short time on the 21st and will have their final meetings of this council session during the morning of October 22. The committees, especially A&F, have spent much of their time discussing the 2009 budget and the formulation of the 2010-2012 proposed budget that it will make to the Joint Standing Committee on Program, Budget and Finance (PB&F). That committee will eventually propose the 2010-2012 budget for the 76th General Convention's approval.
